Only the line items that are affected by non-GAAP adjustments are shown.

Merck is providing certain non-GAAP information that excludes certain items because of the nature of these items and the impact they have on the analysis of underlying business performance and trends. Management believes that providing non-GAAP information enhances investors' understanding of the company's results because management uses non-GAAP measures to assess performance. Management uses non-GAAP measures internally for planning and forecasting purposes and to measure the performance of the company along with other metrics. In addition, annual employee compensation, including senior management's compensation, is derived in part using a non-GAAP pretax income metric. The non-GAAP information presented should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for or superior to, information prepared in accordance with GAAP.

⁽³⁾ Represents the estimated tax impacts on the reconciling items based on applying the statutory rate of the originating territory of the non-GAAP adjustments.

⁽⁴⁾ Represents benefits recorded in the fourth quarter and full year due to reductions in reserves for unrecognized income tax benefits resulting from the expiration of the statute of limitations for assessments related to federal income tax return years. The benefit recognized in the fourth quarter relates to the 2020 federal tax return year and the benefit recognized for the full year relates to both the 2020 and 2019 federal tax return years.
